

SOUTHWEST TRIBAL INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD

ALBUQUERQUE AREA INDIAN HEALTH BOARD, INC.

Institutional Review Board Workshop

August 17, 2011

9am-3pm

Hard Rock Hotel and Casino (Isleta, NM)

Purpose of the Workshop: Provide information about Institutional Review Boards and their role in Southwest Tribal communities. Topics will include:

- ◆ Public Health Research in tribal communities (“Good vs. Bad” research and types of research that have taken place in tribal communities)
- ◆ Provide information about Institutional Review Boards (IRBs)
 - ◆ History of the Indian Health Service IRB system
 - ◆ Roles and Responsibilities of an IRB
 - ◆ Southwest Tribal IRB
- ◆ How Public Health Research is making a difference in tribal communities

Intended Audience: Tribal Health Professionals, Tribal Health Board Members, Health Advisory members, and Tribal Leaders

Presentations by: Southwest Tribal IRB members, public health staff from IHS, and other tribal health organizations.

It is the goal of the Southwest Tribal IRB to make this workshop as user-friendly as possible. We look forward to this learning exchange.
